The right shape for your story.

Horizontal wordmark for articles and video. Square mark for avatars and profile tiles.

ON LIGHT

ON DARK

SQUARE / FOR AVATARS

Wordmark clear space: x = half its height.

Use the supplied artwork

PNG works in most video editors and blogs. SVG wordmarks stay sharp when resized.

Keep the square intact

Keep its gold background and original orientation. Use the 512px PNG at its native size or smaller.

Horizontal wordmark: recommended minimum 120px on screen or 30mm in print. Never retype or stretch.

Warmth, with a clear point of view.

The official wordmark keeps its exact gold. Keep your text easy to read.

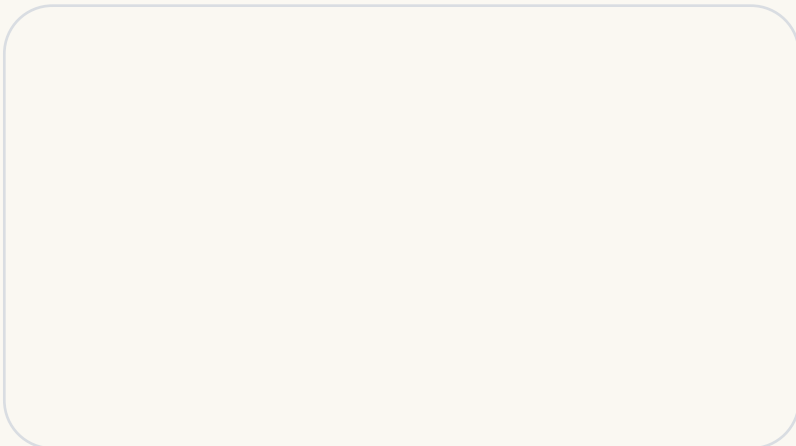

LOGO GOLD

Nunito

Readable. Rounded. Human.

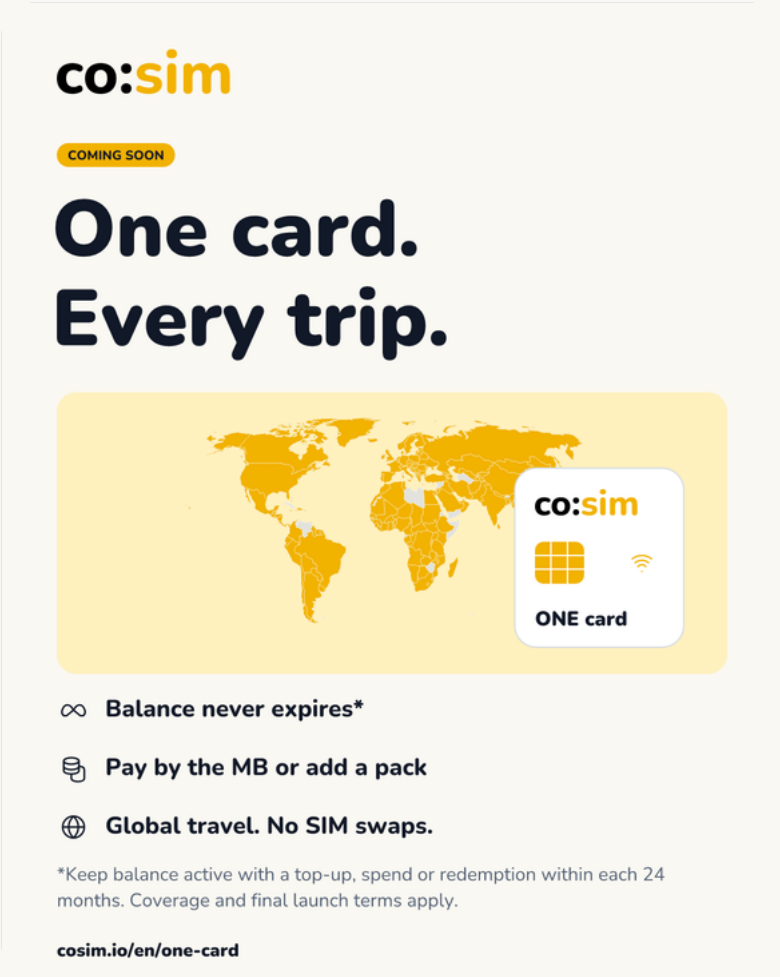

A note for the journey.

Comic Neue / optional short accent

Dark text on gold. White on dark. Paper is a kit layout neutral. Existing OG artwork uses a separate gold (#EAA308). For print, ask for a color proof.

Make the format work for your story.

Ready-to-use PNGs are included. Need a custom layout? Ask partners@cosim.io.

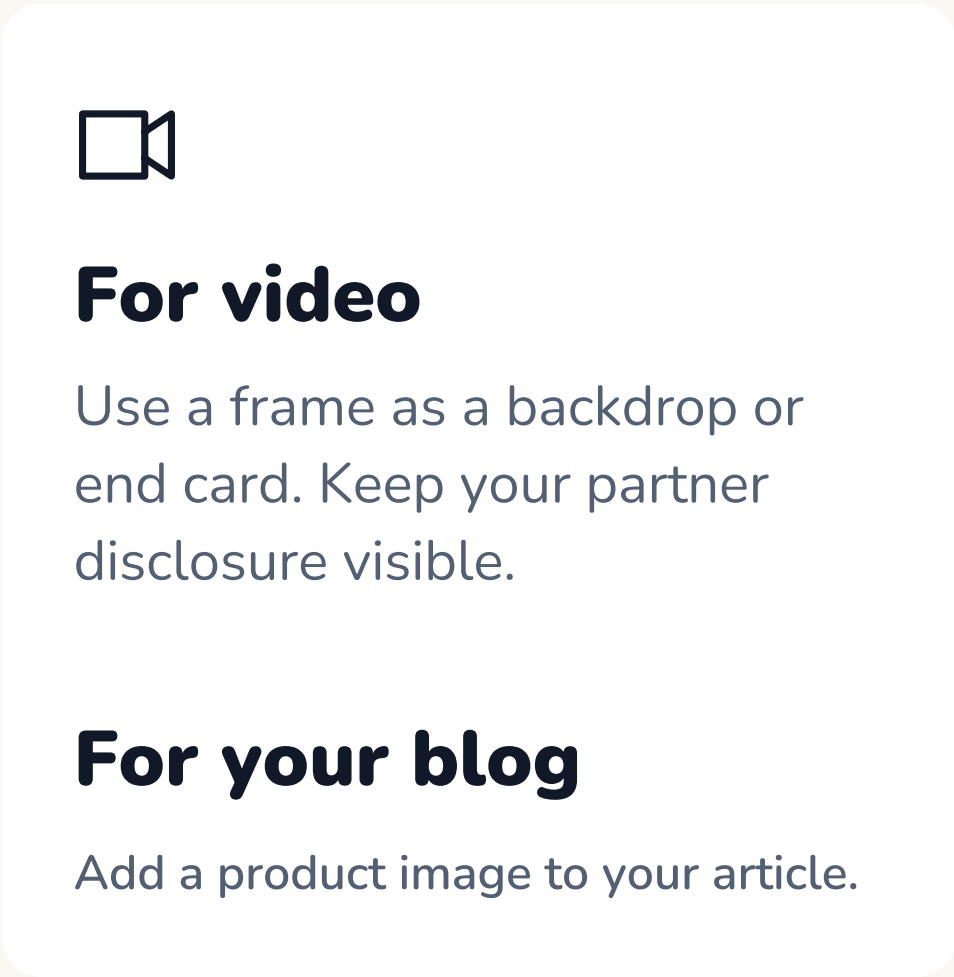

ONE card / portrait

Challenge Card / portrait

Free trial / square

Choose from eight ready-made designs for posts, stories, video end cards and articles. Add your actual relationship disclosure. If you need editable artwork or a custom format, contact partners@cosim.io.

A travel story first. A useful next step.

Use real experience for reviews; call upcoming-product content a preview.

The frequent traveller

“One card for every trip?”

Introduce ONE card as coming soon. Explain lasting balance, MB billing or packs, then invite viewers to join the launch list.

The destination challenge

“What could your next stop unlock?”

Introduce Challenge Card as upcoming and invite only. Show 1GB / 72h and the reward ladder, with its limits.

The first eSIM trip

“Want to try a travel eSIM?”

Show the current free trial, device check and real setup. Explain new-user eligibility and the temporary $1 verification hold.

Hook / product preview or real demo / clear benefit / disclosed CTA

Never show an activation QR, installation code or customer details. Use your issued link or assigned fan code.

13 / FOR BLOG AUTHORS

Give your readers something worth saving.

Destination guides, practical comparisons and clear product previews work well.

01 Start with a real itinerary

Name the destination, trip style and connectivity need.

02 Match the product to the trip

ONE for repeat trips; Challenge for frequent travel; Data Only for a specific itinerary.

03 Show, then explain

Use the supplied screenshots. State current availability, limits and device requirements.

04 Make the next step easy

Use your issued link or approved Data Only fan code, with a clear disclosure.

Let's make something useful.

partners@cosim.io

A clear offer. A clear relationship.

Current public Partners-page excerpts / 18 October 2026. Your accepted offer governs.

Qualifying purchases

“Only valid, paid, non-refunded Data Only eSIM purchases are commissionable.”

Attribution and payout

“Standard attribution is last click within 30 days. Impression attribution is not used.”

Payout

Approved transactions are paid after the network lock period; refunds and invalid orders can reverse commission.

Approval required

Paid media, brand bidding, ad direct links, coupon/cashback claims, extensions and sub-affiliate traffic require approval.

Standard published exclusions include PAYG top-ups, recharge, add-ons, excluded campaigns and unfulfilled orders.
